Dear Sir/Madam
Greetings from APSCHE

I am writing to address the imperative matter of implementing APSSDC programs and allocating credits for Skill and Certification courses.

We request your authoritative intervention in instructing the Colleges to effectively implement APSSDC programs and ensure that students who have successfully completed these programs receive the appropriate Skill Development credits. To ensure the smooth execution of the training program, we kindly request each college to nominate a Single Point of Contact (SPOC).

Moreover, we seek your guidance in compiling a list of new Skill Development courses that are currently being conducted in collaboration with APSSDC.

APSCHE has endorsed a list of skill development courses, awarding two credit points for each course.

The following is a list of these courses:

- Communication Skills
- Aptitude
- Amazon Web Services
- Computer Fundamentals
- MS Office
- Digital Marketing
- Tally
- Hardware & Networking

To,

Dear all,

Sub: SD&T Dept. - APSSDC - Facilities required for effective operationalization of Employability Skill Centers (ESC) - Reg.

As you are well aware, APSSDC has established Employability Skill Centre (ESC) in most of the degree college across AP to offer employability skills to students while pursuing their academics. In continuation to this, it is to inform you that APSSDC has finalized a schedule for imparting the following online trainings in all higher education institutions across AP:

1. Communication Skills	6. AWS
2. Aptitude	7. Hardware & Networking
3. MS Office	8. Tally
4. Python	9. Digital Marketing
5. Computer Fundamentals

The above courses have been granted "2 Credit Points" for each course for all APSCH registered colleges, and APSCH has given "Zero Hour" to implement APSSDC trainings at APCHE colleges across the State of Andhra Pradesh.

APSCHE has also instructed its universities to give the necessary directions to the respective colleges to designate a SPOC in implementing the APSSDC training programs in the interest of the student's employability opportunities.

In AY 2022-23, APSSDC has provided Online Campus Recruitment Training (CRT) where in 338 colleges have participated and expressed positive response on the same.

Since two credits are given to the above listed courses, APSSDC is inviting all higher education institutions under APSCH to encourage their students to participate in training programs based on their interest. We strongly believe that these training programs will enhance the employability skills of your students. APSSDC will issue a course completion certificate to the students who successfully complete the training program and assessment.

A projector with a classroom is sufficient to implement these training programs at your institute, as these sessions will happen on virtual and interactive mode.

In this regard, we hereby request you to allocate and ensure the following facilities from your end:

1. A laptop/ computer with Zoom Meeting Software installed along with a projector.
